Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We have the wedding at Cana at the heart of today’s liturgy because this story of Jesus’ first miracle of water turned into wine was originally part of the Epiphany feast. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and a people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. The mother of Jesus has been recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arises, she does what she can to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ’s blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the “Nuptial Blessing,” one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate this day as a mini-anniversary, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine.

BOOKKEEPER NEEDED

We are looking for a part-time bookkeeper for St. Anne Catholic Church and Missions. Primarily responsible for accounts payable, billing missions, processing payroll as well as office duties as needed. This encompasses data entry, posting deposits and other receipts. Incumbent operates from specific and defined directions and proceeds and performs with moderate supervision. The bookkeeper position requires teamwork and covering other office duties.

JOB SKILLS: Understanding of general bookkeeping principles, payroll and the tax laws associated with payroll. PC Software, calculator, and all basic equipment, including working with Excel spreadsheets, accounting processes and knowledge of QuickBooks. ADP Workforce is our payroll system. The ability to meet deadlines with good communication skills, accuracy to detail and the highest ability to maintain confidentiality.

EDUCATION AND/OR EXPERIENCE: A.A. Degree or equivalent in Accounting or Bookkeeping with three to five years’ experience in accounting. Experience in parish, pastoral center or other related entity preferred. Knowledge and understanding of church organization and operational procedures a plus. Practicing Catholic preferred.

Please submit cover letter and resume to BookkeeperSearch@stannegp.com or drop off your resume at the Parish Office.

VOCATION MINISTRY

Contact: Paul Wilson

We ask each Parishioner to pray the following Petition:

“That those especially chosen by Christ to follow Him as Priests, Deacons, and the Consecrated Life will respond generously to His call,”

We pray to the Lord

Something to Think About This Week:

“[His mother said] ‘Do whatever he tells you.’
Jn 2: 5

If Christ may be calling you to serve Him as a Priest, Religious or Permanent Deacon, call the Parish office at 541-476-2240 to make an appointment with Fr Bill at wholtzinger@stannegp.com or Fr Stephen Kenyon at skenyon@stannegp.com. You can find information about the priesthood on our Parish website, stannegp.com - go to Vocations under the Resources & News tab. You can also find vocation resources on the Archdiocese website at archdpdxvocations.org.

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST CHARLES OF SEZZE (1613 - 1670), was born to a pious family in Italy, worked as a shepherd and joined the Franciscans as a lay brother in 1635. Known for his holiness, simplicity and charity, he served in various friaries as cook, porter, sacristan and gardener. He wrote several mystical works and his autobiography, “The Grandeurs of the Mercies of God.”

Tradition has it that when near death Pope Clement IX called him to his bedside for a blessing. Charles was Canonized by St John XXIII in 1959.

His Feast Day is January 18th

LIFE, JUSTICE, AND PEACE
Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children
January 22, 2022

On January 22, 1973, the US Supreme Court legalized abortion throughout the United States in its companion decisions Roe v Wade and Doe v Bolton. Since then millions of children have lost their lives, and millions of women and families have been wounded by abortion.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), No. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children:

In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23 when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.

We are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or almsgiving. See respectlife.org for additional resources for this important day of prayer and penance.

The USCCB also sponsors a nationwide novena called 9 Days for Life. For more information see respectlife.org/9-days-for-life.

REVELATION OF GOD’S PRESENCE

Today’s first reading from Isaiah arises out of the ordeal of the people of Jerusalem and Judea as they anticipate the end of seventy years of exile in Babylon. Their sufferings and their oppression will end, and they are promised joy like that of a great wedding upon returning to their homeland. Although this passage is probably set in the early sixth century B.C., it is free of historical particulars. Accordingly, the Church has understood its imagery universally, as it proclaims God’s promise of healing, hope, and happiness for all peoples, in this world and in the next. When read against this background, the story of Jesus’ turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana becomes a revelation of God’s presence in the person of Jesus, making these promises real for us in the here and now, in the transformation of our own lives.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty ever-living God,
 who govern all things,
 both in heaven and on earth,
 mercifully hear the pleading of your people
 and bestow your peace on our times.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What can I do to help to bring about God’s peace?
